From

The Secretary to the Hon'ble the Resident Confdtial Rf. 280-41/Pol dated 16.1.42
re reports of arrivals of British Subjects.

The Residency have forwarded copies of a new rule 24-A of the Defence of India Rules and of an Order made thereunder by the Government of India, and have requested that the authorities appointed for the purpose of checking passports in the State may be asked to take certain action under the Order.

The new rule empowers the Government to require any person or class of persons entering British India (Mysore) to furnish certain particulars. Under this rule the Government of India have passed an order requiring every British Subject and British protected person entering British India to furnish in writing the information set out in the Schedule to the Order.

The new rule will, as usual, be republished in the Mysore Gazette for general information. It appears sufficient if the Order also is republished in the Mysore Gazette for general information. Since such a person entering an Indian State is required by the British Indian Order itself to report to the Political Officer concerned, jurisdiction of the Government of India in respect of British Subjects and British protected persons is personal to them.

FROM

THE SECRETARY TO THE HON'BLE THE RESIDENT IN MYSORE.

CHIEF SECRETARY. 17 JAN. 1942 GOVT. OF MYSORE.

The Chief Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

Dated Bangalore, the 16th January 1942.

REPORTS OF ARRIVALS OF BRITISH SUBJECTS.

SIR,

I am directed to say that, under existing orders of the Government of India, it is necessary that lists of British subjects and British protected persons arriving in India should be furnished to the Intelligence Bureau of the Government of India in order that arrivals may be checked against the lists of endorsements and exit permits. Apart from this consideration, it has been suggested that British subjects who have travelled in foreign countries since the outbreak of war may, if approached for this purpose, be able to give useful information relating to those countries. A report of arrival will therefore serve both the purpose of checking the lists of endorsements and exit permits and of indicating which subjects who have arrived in India might profitably be approached for information of the nature mentioned above.

2. The Government of India have accordingly decided to require under Rule 24-A of the Defence of India Rules every British subject to report certain particulars on his/her arrival in India. Copies of the new rule 24-A of the Defence of India Rules and of the Order thereunder are enclosed.

3. It is requested that you will instruct the authorities appointed for the purpose of checking passports in the State

(1) to require every British subject and British protected person arriving in India to complete a form containing the particulars specified in the Schedule to the Order made under Rule 24-A of the Defence of India Rules,

(2) to insert in the form the category of the passport, endorsement or as the case may be, the number and date of the exit permit granted to the traveller, and to despatch the completed form to this Residency for transmission to the Intelligence Bureau of the Government of India.

4. It is suggested that the procedure at the place of arrival can be linked up without difficulty with the procedure at present followed for the registration of foreigners.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

SECRETARY TO THE RESIDENT.

The Maharaja of Mysore,
LAW DEPARTMENT, BANGALORE.

Subject.- Reports of arrivals of British Subjects.

Sir,

With reference to letter No. R.L. 1364 dated 2nd February 1942 forwarding a copy of confidential letter No. R.F. 280-41/ Pol. dated 16th January 1942 from the Residency on the above subject and copies of a new Rule 24-A of the Defence of India Rules and of an order of the Government of India thereunder, for taking action as suggested in the letter of the Residency, I have the honour to state that no British Subject can possibly arrive in Mysore State without passing through British India, where he will have been dealt with under the rule. Thereupon the responsibility of reporting his change of address is on the subject and this responsibility would presumably follow him wherever he might go.

As regards Para 3 of the Residency letter No. R.F. 280-41/ Pol. dated 16th January 1942 none has been designated in the Mysore State for the purpose of checking passports in the State.

It might, however, be useful to instruct the Police Stations that any report made to them by a British or British protected person of change of address (Para 2 of the Government of India Order under the Rule) should be duly trnasmitted

to

to the Special Branch in Mysore, so that it may be communicated to the Residency through the usual channel.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF POLICE

Interrogation of persons entering India.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to the External Affairs Department letter No.F.333(3)-G/41, dated the 2nd January 1942(copy enclosed*) regarding the reports of arrival of British Subjects and to say that in order to ensure that persons in India or coming to India are not overlooked as possible purveyors of information of value to His Majesty's Forces in India or abroad or to the Intelligence organisations functioning on behalf of the Empire, the Government of India consider that the categories of persons mentioned in paragraphs 2 and 3 below should be requested to furnish information as specified, and in the manner laid down, in those paragraphs.

* to C.C., Panth-Piploda only.

2. British subjects returning to or arriving in India. In accordance with the instructions in the Government of India External Affairs Department, letter cited above, British subjects who are not exempted from the operation of the rules and orders made under the Indian Passport Act,1920, arriving in India are required to complete arrival forms. The Director of the Intelligence Bureau, after after carrying out the necessary check in respect of passports, the endorsements thereon and exit permits, if any, will distribute the forms to the Commissioner of Police concerned, if the persons in question are residing in the cities of Madras, Bombay and Calcutta, to the Criminal Investigation Department in the case of Delhi, and to the Superintendents of Police of Districts in other cases. Thereafter the Police authority concerned will request these persons to furnish information in the manner and on the lines indicated in the enclosed questionnaire. Statements thus obtained, if of sufficient interest or importance should be forwarded to the Intelligence Bureau who will, in consultation with the authorities concerned, decide whether any of the persons should be further questioned and if so by whom.

3. Non-enemy foreigners in India or arriving in India. These persons are required to be registered under the Registration of Foreigners Act, 1939, and the rules made thereunder. Particulars about them are thus readily obtainable and there is no need to require them to fill up the same arrival forms as British subjects Such of them as are registered will be questioned in the manner outlined in the preceding paragraph. Non enemy aliens exempted from registration will be given similar attention if they are known to be friendly and there is reason to believe that they are in possession of information of value.

4. I am to explain that action to question British subjects should be restricted to those who are willing to furnish information within their knowledge and to question non-enemy foreigners to those who are believed to be friendly and should not be in the nature of an interrogation of an unwilling subject.

5. I am to request that if the Government of Madras, etc. have no objection, the police authorities concerned may be informed of the scheme and requested to take necessary action on receipt of the arrival

forms

forms or requests, as the case may be, from the Intelligence Bureau.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Dated the 5th September 1942.

My dear Egerton,

I enclose a note on Haridas Dharmshi Sampat and an extract from a translated Hindi letter intercepted at Singapore, from Prakash Chandra Singal (written on board ship while returning to India from Japan early in 1940) to D.S. Deshpande (Rash Bihari Bose's Secretary) c/o Asia Lodge, Tokyo, Sampat is now Manager of the Madras branch of N. Jivanlal & Co., Bombay, which was recently evacuated from Madras to the Dt. Board Buildings, Bangalore City.

Please have him interrogated about his activities and contacts in the Far East and let me have two copies of his statement.

Yours sincerely,

for Superintendent of Police,

W.Leb. Egerton Esq., ICS.,

No.6275/C.

Copy to the Asst. Director (J) Intelligence Bureau New Delhi, with reference to his No.29/I.A/42(14) dated 20th July 1942.

Haridas Dharmshi Sampat did not come to adverse notice during his stay in Madras for the last two years.

NOTE ON HARIDAS DHARAMSHI SAMPAT.

HARIDAS DHARAMSHI SAMPAT is a Bhatia by caste and his age is about 24 years. He is an inhabitant of Jamnagar.

Haridas' father DHARAMSHI JADAVJI is a very old and orthodox man having his Ghee shop in Mandvi Bazaar, Jamnagar. The father is so much religious and engrossed in his workships that he hardly takes interest in other things.

Dharamshi has three sons. The eldest Mathuradas aged about 35 is serving as an accountant in the National Insurance Co., in Calcutta. The second Gordhandas owns the Sampat Swadeshi Stores at Kalbadevi Road Bombay. The youngest is Haridas.

Haridas took his education up to fifth standard English at Jamnagar. He failed in fifth and secretly left Jamnagar with a Kadia friend on bicycle for Bombay. The name of that Kadia (Mason) friend is not available but his surname was reported to be Tank. The elder brother Gordhandas subsequently informed the father that Haridas had gone to Bombay. At this time, Haridas was about 15 years old.

In Bombay Haridas lived with his brother and studied up to VII standard but failed in Matriculation Examination. He then went to Japan in 1935 or 1936 and stayed there for about two years. He wanted to learn spinning and weaving but finding it difficult to learn the language, he returned to Bombay. On his return, the father divided the properties between three brothers and they are all separate since then.

Haridaas opened a shop in Bombay with the moneys that came to his share.

After having worked in this shop for two years, he went to Japan again. He spent two years, in Japan, but being unsuccesful in business, he returned to Bombay again. He stopped in Bombay for a short time, but having lost here too, he went to Calcutta to his eldest brother. From Calcutta he went to Madras. No details of his activities in Madras and Calcutta are available.

He last came to Jamnagar in June 1940 only for a day, when he was called to give information regarding Japan to one Vora Himatlal Dayal ji a partner of the firm of Bhogilal Sakarchand, as the latter wanted to go to Japan. No one knows in Jamnagar as to where Haridas at present is. He never writes to his father or any other friend in Jamnagar. Hence no further information is available in Jamnagar.

Extract from a translated Hindi letter re Sampat.

Re: Sampat. Being too much occupied in business he seems to be forgetting all about the real objective. It would be far better if you could keep inciting him by sending him, off and on a letter either yourself or through Voa. Sampat is perhaps in Shanghai at present and will remain there for about a month. Another thing is that he (Sampat) has given a Power of Attorney for his Bombay office to Devani & Co., and therefore we cannot spend anything out of his money for our own purpose. Devani & Co., are Banyas and we will have to account for every pie that we spend. I did not, however, draw his (Sampat's)attention to this intentionally, as he has yet to establish his business properly. It would be better if you drew his attention to this technicality after some time, as once his business is established he should either do away with Devani or find out some other way for our purpose. I am also thinking about it.

War (CS) 16/10

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF POLICE.

Statement of Mr. Haridas Dharamshi Sampat, Attorney for the Proprietor of Messrs. N. Jeevanlal & Co., Bangalore Branch, District Board Buildings, Bangalore City.

I have been connected with Messrs. N. Jeevanlal & Co., since January 1941. After completing the Matriculation Examination of the Bombay University, I proceeded to Japan in 1937 for studies in Textile Engineering. I joined the Kiriyu College of Technology, Japan. I was a student of this institution for about a year and a half. At Kiriyu I was living with a Japanese family as a paying guest. I do not know the name of the family. Prakash Chandra Singal of Delhi was also a student of the College of Technology, Kiriyu. There were several other Indian students whose names I do not remember now. I was only interested in my studies and used to pay frequent visits to Kobe during vacations to form business contacts and study business. I never met Rash Behari Bose or any other politician as I was only interested in my studies and business. I did not make any Japanese contacts at this time. I met one Mr. D.S. Deshpande only once at Tokyo, where he was employed. I do not know in what capacity he was employed or any other details about him. I stayed in Japan for about two or three months after completing my technological studies to study business and form business contacts, namely in the import and export line.

I returned to India in July 1938. On my return to India I was connected with the Olympia Trading Corporation, Bombay, as Exporter & Importer and Indenting Agent.

I left for Japan again in October 1939 for business. I returned to India on 22nd April 1940. During this period my headquarters was at Kobe. I also paid a visit to Shanghai for about a month in connection with my business. At Kobe I was in contact with several Indian and Japanese businessmen, whose names I do not remember, but can furnish them on reference to my records at Calcutta.

I was never interested in politics. My object in visiting Japan was purely for business. Our firm, Olympia Trading Corporation had connections with Japan, Germany, America and England. This firm was wound up in May 1940 owing to the international situation. I then went to Calcutta in June 1940 and lived with my brother, Mr. M.D.Sampat, Chief Accountant, National Insurance Company, Calcutta. I was at Calcutta till December 1940.

In January 1941 I went to Madras to join the firm of Messrs. N. Jeevanlal & Co., The Madras Branch was shifted to Bangalore in April 1942.

I have heard of Mr. K.L.Nanjappa who was studying at Tokyo but have never met him. I do not know Mr. P.Hariharan of the Porcelain Factory, Bangalore. I met one Mr. Vora, an educationist, who told me he was studying primary education in Japan at Kobe, during my second visit to Japan. I left Japan before he left.

Beyond the above I cannot furnish any other details.

Copy of a report dated 21.10.1942 from the S.I. of Police, British Evacuees' Camp, Coimbatore.

It is learnt that two brothers by name David, who were working in the mines at Namtu (Burma) were caught by a Japanese officer who, after a while, took away their wrist watches and gave them others in return and also gave them a free pass through the Japanese lines and allowed them to evacuate to India. These two brothers are now said to be employed in the K.G.F. Mines.

If this information is true, it may be useful to interrogate these brothers who may be able to give some useful information about Japanese activities.
